Our group structure
Group structure

The Development Initiatives ("DI") Group consists of:

- Development Initiatives Poverty Research Limited ("DIPR") – a UK company limited by guarantee (number 06368740). This is the main company that leads the group; the majority of staff are employed by this company which has the key operations. DIPR principally receives grant funding for its work and operates as a not-for-profit organisation. DIPR has staff based at its' registered branch office in Kenya (number CF/2011/62291) and a small number of staff are based in Uganda.

- DI International Limited ("DII") – a UK company limited by shares (number 05802543) of which 90% are owned by DIPR and 10% owned by the current Executive Director. DII undertakes consultancy assignments that help to deliver the DI Group’s strategy, and any dividends are used to build DIPR reserves and undertake new and innovative work. DII also operates in Kenya as a branch office (number CF/2011/62372)

- Development Initiatives Poverty Research America Inc ("DIPRA") – a US registered charity (a 501c3), which is a separate entity established to help DI manage existing and build new funding relationships. Staff are based in Washington DC, USA.

- Stichting Development Initiatives Poverty Research – a foundation registered in The Netherlands (RSIN 860297706) which supports the public benefit objectives of DIPR.

All entities are considered to be part of the DI Group for operational purposes and share the same vision. The main board, for governance purposes, is the DIPR board. Board members do not receive any remuneration for the performance of their duties other than reimbursement for reasonable expenses.

DIPR: The DIPR board of directors consists of six Non-Executive Directors and the Executive Director.

DII: The DII board of directors consists of four of the DIPR board of directors (including the Executive Director who is the Chair) plus one employee who is a member of the Executive team and acts as Staff Director.

DIPRA: Three members of the DIPR board (including the Executive Director who is the President) sit on the DIPRA board.

Stichting: The management board of Stichting Development Initiatives Poverty Research will consist of at least three members, once it has moved to ANBI (non-profit) status. These will be elected from the DIPR board and will include the Executive Director.
Our group structure / devinit.org
Development Initiatives (DI) is an independent international development organisation working on the use of data to drive poverty eradication and sustainable development. Our vision is a world without poverty that invests in human security and where everyone shares the benefits of opportunity and growth.

We work to ensure that decisions about the allocation of finance and resources result in an end to poverty, increase the resilience of the world’s most vulnerable people, and ensure no one is left behind.
